

St Saviour's Church

Church of England

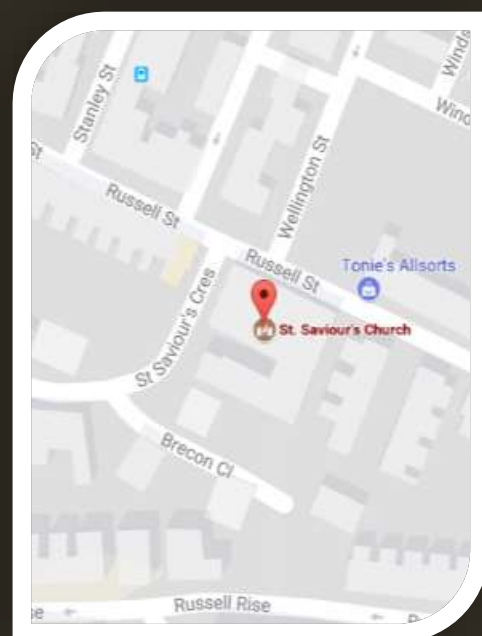

Russian Choral Music

Nikolsky Male Ensemble

Saturday 14 April, 2018 from 7pm to 9pm

St Saviour's Church
St Saviour's Crescent
Luton LU1 5HG

Advance Tickets	£7.00
Door Tickets	£10.00

www.stsaviour.org.uk

An Invitation

The 'Saint Saviour's Concert Series' starts its season of classical events this year with an invitation to experience Russian Choral Music with world renowned Nikolsky Male Ensemble.

The Nikolsky Male Ensemble was formed in 2015, as a part of the Choir of the St Nikolas Monastery, in Saratov. The Russian city of Saratov also has a State Conservatoire which after Moscow and St Petersburg is the third largest in Russia. Members of the Ensemble are chosen from amongst the finest soloists performing in Saratov Opera, Theatre of Choral Music and cathedrals. Each singer has a passionate commitment to Russian music, but they also have an extensive repertoire that includes music written by the great classical composers of Europe.

Although sung in Russian, language is not a barrier to enjoying the beautiful and moving melodies. The concert will include motets and liturgical settings from the Eastern Church together with Russian folk songs that characterise the great 'Russian Soul'.

For more information about the 'Saint Saviour Concert Series', please visit our website: www.stsaviour.org.uk