NOTICES FOR THE WEEK COMMENCING 30TH SEPTEMBER 2018

Welcome to S Mary's and S Saviour's today: there will as always be tea, coffee etc served after both Solemn Masses, and we very much hope you will be able to stay.

Joan Clarke, R.I.P.: it is with very great sadness that I learned that Joan died on Friday of this week. She had reached the wonderful age of 98, and had remained active and joyful all her life. She was the organist at S Mary's for an amazing 60 years, and although she moved to Devon some 8 years ago, she has remained one of the most well loved members of S Mary's. I will publish details of her funeral when I have them, which will of course take place in Devon. There will be a Solemn Requiem Mass for Joan at S Mary's in the near future. Jesus mercy, Mary pray.

At the Solemn Mass at S Saviour's: We welcome those having banns read: Ronald Jesse Fisher (S Saviour) and Pauline Louise Jarvis (S Margaret). We give them our prayers and good wishes as they prepare for their wedding which will take place at All Saints.

S Saviour's coffee mornings: The next one will be the first Saturday in October. Please come along and support the coffee mornings and have a chat with visitors next Saturday!

Rosary Sunday this year: will be observed on Sunday 14th October. This is a week later than usual, as it is custom in Sundon parish to have a Harvest Festival, which this year has been organised for Sunday 7th October with a Harvest Supper on the evening of Saturday 6th October (this Saturday). There is a list for the Harvest Supper at the back of S Mary's Church.

S Mary's clothing bags: will next be collected on October 17th. Please leave bags at the Vicarage garage.
